

English

How to call for a firetruck and ambulance

The Miki Fire Department has implemented and started the operation of a multilingual interpretation service (five languages.) for foreign residents for emergency 119 calls.

Languages: English, Chinese, Korean, Spanish, Portuguese

Available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year

Call 119 as usual. When you start speaking in English (Chinese, Korean, Spanish, Portuguese), the operator sets up a three-way call with an interpreter.

Three-way calls may take several seconds to set up. During this time, callers must wait on the line.

